Webmaster, Kennesaw State University (University College & Honors College)

Kennesaw, Georgia — September 2013 - January 2015

As the Webmaster for these two colleges at Kennesaw State University I was responsible for building and maintaining multiple websites. Most of the websites are built with PHP, HTML and CSS. I also worked with Javascript and related codes to maintain extensions on the website. I took requests from every employee and completed the requests swiftly. While working here I was also brought in to multiple meetings where my input was requested for projects and how conventions should be run. When I was sent images or graphics for the website I used Photoshop and Illustrator to edit them so they would look best on the website.

Below is a list of websites I have worked, built, and/or assisted in building for the colleges.

Some websites have large amounts of content hidden within as per request from the department heads.
