

Snellville, 30039
aaliyahabreu0421@gmail.com
762-436-6285

AALIYAH ABREU

PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Technically sophisticated information technology specialist with over 3 years of experience supporting software and hardware systems. Demonstrated expertise in technical support, project management, and business analysis. Exceptional communication (verbal and written), interpersonal, motivational, and strong listening skills. Bilingual in English and Spanish.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

MAR 2022 - PRESENT

Desktop Support Technician, City of Atlanta Department of Aviation

- Provided technical support and troubleshooting for hardware and software issues using ServiceNow ticketing system for city employees and contractors.
- Managed and resolved IT incidents by leveraging the ServiceNow platform, ensuring timely and effective resolution of user issues.
- Performed system installations, upgrades, and maintenance, including operating systems, software applications, and security updates.
- Configured and maintained desktop computers, laptops, printers, and other peripheral devices.
- Utilized ConnectWise for remote control and support, assisting users with technical issues and configurations.
- Conducted user training sessions and created documentation for common IT issues and solutions, enhancing overall team productivity.
- Collaborated with network administrators and IT security teams to ensure data and system security.
- Supported the setup and maintenance of conference rooms and audiovisual equipment for meetings and events.
- Assisted in implementing IT projects, including hardware rollouts, software deployments, and infrastructure upgrades.
- Monitored and maintained inventory of IT equipment, ensuring adequate supply and tracking of assets.
- Provided excellent customer service, maintaining a high level of professionalism and communication with users.

IT Intern, Department of Aviation

- Provided technical support experience, troubleshooting issues with browsers, plugins, and internet connections, as well as software and hardware issues on PC, Mac, and mobile devices.
- Assisted in solving issues through analytical thinking and creative problem-solving.
- Ensured Level 1 technicians had proper tools, including training, hardware, and documentation.
- Developed and maintained a call monitoring program to ensure a high quality of service for testing centers.
- Provided performance feedback to employees regularly.
- Ensured accurate recording of helpdesk calls using the company's incident tracking systems.

IT Support Technician, D-Network

- Created, tested, and developed current workstation images.
- Tested, evaluated, and packaged software and applications for workstation distribution.
- Worked closely with vendors and managed services to maintain systems and services, manage changes, and deploy new systems.
- Knowledge of server and network communications equipment, including DNS and TCP/IP, transmission media, security, and network management practices.
- Troubleshooted Windows 2000-8.1 and had good working knowledge of Office products; provided printer/fax support.
- Acted as an escalation resource to the Help Desk, Site Administrators, and Network Operations Center to assist with issues affecting endpoints.
- Managed mobile device enrollment and administration.

SKILLS

HTML

JavaScript

Microsoft Office

Web Design

Power Automate

CSS

Google Tech support

Data analytics

Customer Support

Power Apps

LANGUAGES

English

Spanish

